

Adient executive biography

Jeff Stafeil

Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

As Adient's executive vice president and chief financial officer, Jeff Stafeil leads all of Adient's financial activities, including treasury, tax and audit as well as information technology.

Over the course of his career, Stafeil has developed extensive operational leadership and financial management experience, primarily within automotive supplier companies, publicly traded as well as private equity firms and business consultant agencies. He comes to Adient from Visteon, a global automotive electronics supplier and Fortune 500 company. There, he served as executive vice president and chief financial officer.

Prior to working at Visteon, Stafeil held a series of domestic and international executive finance roles within the automotive sector. He also held management positions at Booz Allen Hamilton, Peterson Consulting and Ernst & Young.

Stafeil is a member of the board of directors for Arconic Inc. as well a member of the board of trustees for the Autism Alliance of Michigan. He previously served on the Autism Alliance of Michigan's board of directors and as the audit committee chairman of Mentor Graphics and Metaldyne Performance Group.

Stafeil holds a Master of Business Administration from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business, as well as a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Indiana University.
