Dear Adient Supplier,

As many of you have heard recently in the news, the Chinese Government has instituted travel restrictions due to the Coronavirus that began in Wuhan, CN.

Please confirm if the recent events and citywide closures in China due to the Coronavirus will impact any of the products that your organization supplies to Adient globally. If so, please specify the products that are impacted; including manufacturing location and Adient receiving plant. Please provide your contingency plan to address the situation.

Communicate your response and contingency plan to your Adient Buyer no later than Friday, January 31, 2020.

Respectfully,
