

Rick T. Dillon
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF
FINANCIAL OFFICER, ARAMARK
UNIFORM SERVICES

Rick T. Dillon currently serves as the senior vice president and chief financial officer of Aramark Uniform Services, a full-service rental program provider in the United States and Canada with programs focused on uniforms, floor mats, towels, linens and managed restroom and first aid services. Prior to joining Aramark in 2022, he was the executive vice president and chief financial officer of EnerpacToolGroup.

Prior to that, Dillon served as executive vice president and chief financial officer of Century Aluminum Co.; in several leadership roles at Joy Global Inc., including vice president of finance for its global surface mining group and vice president, controller and chief accounting officer; as vice president of business planning and analysis and vice president, controller and chief accounting officer at Newell Brands; and as vice president, controller and chief accounting officer at Briggs & Stratton Corporation.

He serves as chair of the Board of Directors of College Possible Milwaukee, a national organization dedicated to making college admission and success possible for low-income and underrepresented students. Dillon is also a member of the Marquette University Board of Trustees and the College of Business Administration Leadership Council.

His leadership was recognized with the 2019 Milwaukee Business Journal's CFO of the Year Award.

Dillon is a graduate of Marquette University's College of Business, earning an Honors B.S. in Accounting. He earned a Master of Business Administration from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and he is a licensed Certified Public Accountant.